

JANUARY 28, 2008

Hours	Activities
8 :30	Official opening
10 :30	Coffee break Official visit of the stands
10 :30	Presentation of the program
12 :30	Presentation of APPIA results Certification Process
12 :30	Lunch
13 :15
13 :15	Intervention of donors (FAO, the World Bank, MAE)
15 :00	Intervention of regional organizations (WAEMU, CILSS, ECOWAS, NEPAD)
15 :00	Visit of stands
18 :00	Round table of donors on the funding of the RAID activities

JANUARY 29, 2008

REGIONAL SEMINAR

Informal irrigation: Importance and prospect in West and central Africa

SESSION 1-Chairman:

TOPIC: Typology - Characterization – Inventory

Application of Community -based methodological approach for the characterization and impact of informal irrigation systems in two sub-districts of Ethiopia	R.D. BEKELE
Estimating crop yields in flood recession agriculture in the Senegal river valley using Remote Sensing and GI.	L. MANE P. FRAVAL
Locating irrigation typologies: spatially disaggregated informal irrigation maps of Nigeria.	Oladele O.I
Use of air photos at low altitude for the follow-up of hydro-agricultural activities – Case of the Kou basin .	J.WELLENS
Market-gardening production and irrigation system in the town of Cotonou: Cartographic approach (Benin) -	R. GOUWALE, B. DONOU, M. BOKO
Market-gardening production and irrigation system in the town of Sèmè-Kpodji: Cartographic approach (Benin)	R.GOUWALE, B. DONOU, M. BOKO

SESSION 2-Chairman:

TOPIC: Technical, institutional and organizational aspects

- Urban agriculture and structuring of the urban environment in Burkina: Analysis of the role of farmer organizations and agricultural professional ones. D. OUEDRAOGO
- Analysis of the determinants of irrigation good practices adoption in urban and peri-urban agriculture in Burkina: Case of the truck farming in the towns of Bobo-Dioulasso and Ouagadougou. L. M. KINANE
- Determinants of the sustainability of irrigation practices in urban and peri-urban agriculture in Burkina: An approach in terms of effectiveness and financial profitability. T. A. TOUGMA
- Characteristics of Small Scale Irrigation Technologies in the White Volta sub-Basin, Ghana. E. A. OFOSU
- Urine – An untapped resource for vegetable production: a Nigerian study.. M. K. C. SRIDHAR
- Irrigation technology in South Africa, within a global context F. REINDERS

SESSION 3-Chairman :

TOPIC : Contribution to food security and poverty reduction

- Estimate of the economic value of water in urban and peri-urban irrigated agriculture in Burkina: A lighting on market-gardening producers assent to pay (CAPE) for quality water in Ouagadougou and Bobo-Dioulasso. D. SANGARE
- Perception and risk management in urban and peri-urban irrigated agriculture in Burkina: Empirical instances in Bobo-Dioulasso and Ouagadougou.. D. OUEDRAOGO
- Market-gardening production in the town of Niamey (Niger): evolutions and impacts on the populations. A. MOUSTAPHA
- Private developments in the Senegal River delta: difficulties of drainage and environmental problems. B. CISSE
- Informal irrigation and development of the southernmost slopes of the mounts Bambouto (Western – Cameroon). Y.B. DJOUDA FEUDJIO, J. LEMOUOGUE
- The MUS approach: looking at informal irrigation from a broader perspective. M. ADANK
- Assessment of informal irrigation management in urban agriculture on food security in Lagos Anosike-Adedayo, Vide

SESSION 4 –Chairman :

TOPIC : Development Prospects

- Participatory evaluation of the drop by drop irrigation technique in the North of Burkina Faso: potentialities, constraints and conditions of adoption. J. GUE-TRAORE
- Informal irrigation vis-à-vis the official project around the Bagre Lake (Burkina Faso). L. YAMEOGO

Formal and informal irrigation for the production dry season crops in Burkina Faso: statistical reality and development potential.

B. BARBIER

Some donors' experiences on informal irrigation in Africa.

H. LEVITE

T. STEPHENS

WELCOMING COCKTAIL

JANUARY 30, 2008

REGIONAL SEMINAR

Informal irrigation: Importance et prospect in west and central Africa

Group work

Synthesis of the work

LUNCH

Synthesis of the work

THE RAID GENERAL ASSEMBLY

VISIT OF STANDS

JANUARY 31, 2008

Arrival of Ministers

Visit of the authorities in Bobo

Visit of stands

Field Visit

Lunch

Conference of Ministers

Plenary sessions

Recommendations

Closing Gala